Eastern church

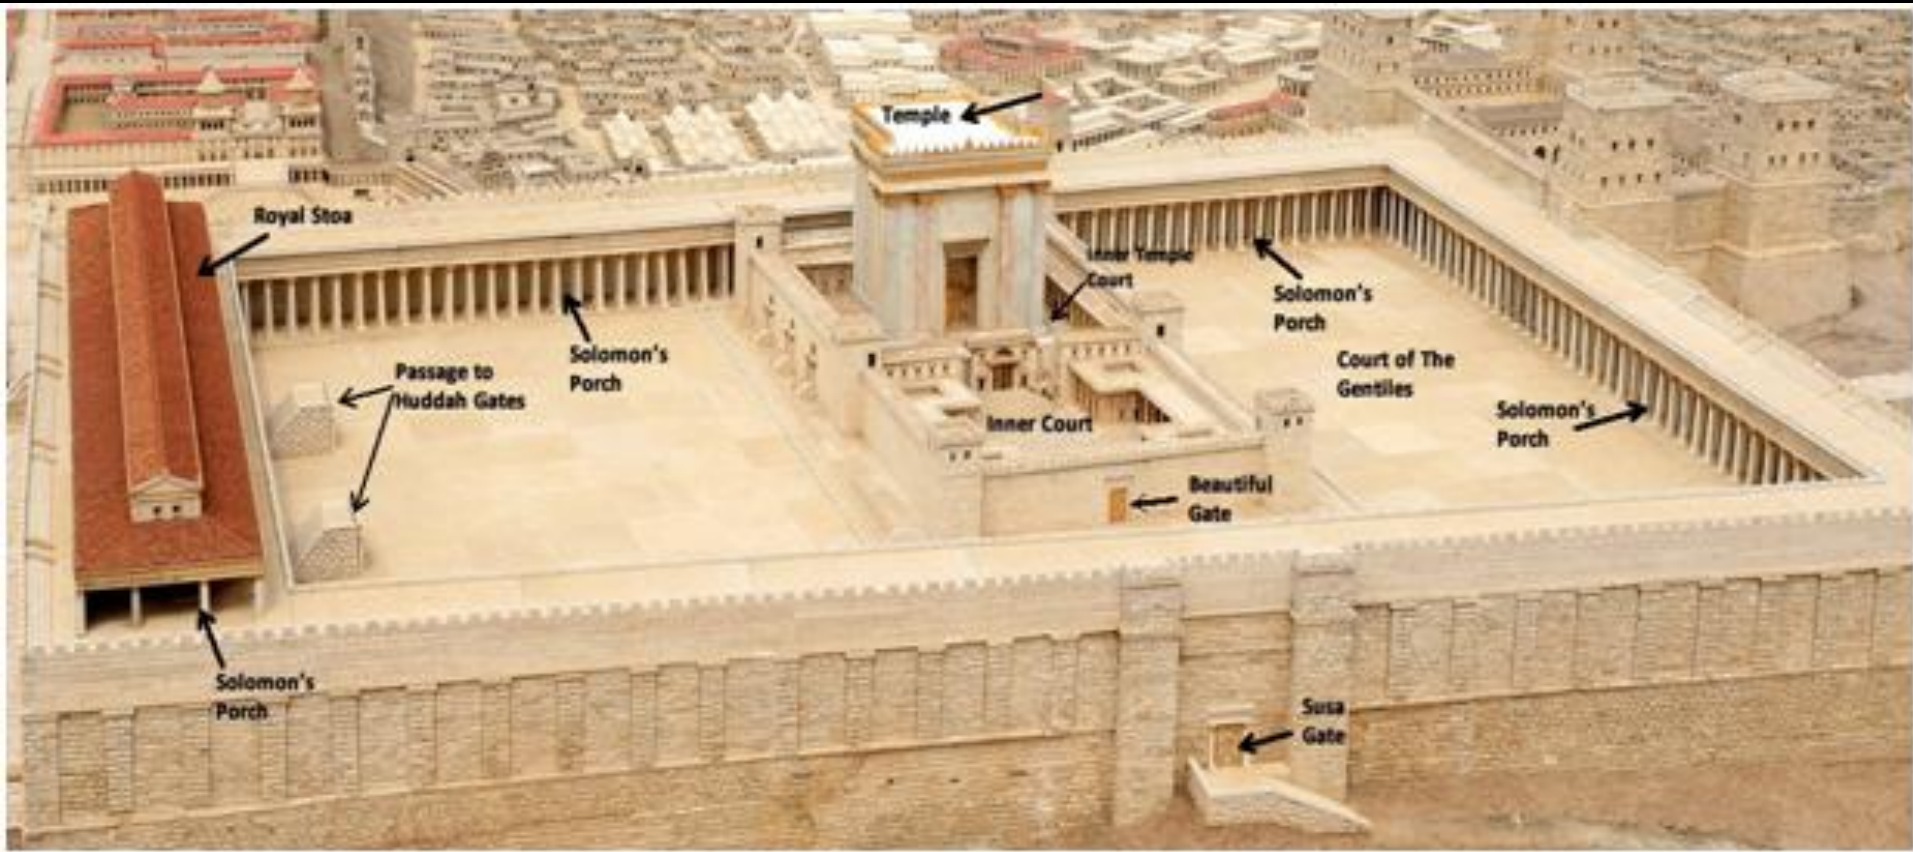

Fall of Constantinople, 1453

Pope Paul VI and Patriarch Athenagoras
(1964)

Pope Francis and Bartholomew I

Pelagius (360-418)

Augustine (354-430)

“If God is just, righteous and holy, and God commands of the creature to do something, certainly the creature must have the power and the moral ability within himself to perform it.”

“O God, command what you will,
and grant what you command.”
