

A person wearing a white dress shirt and a dark suit jacket is holding a small white rectangular sign in their right hand. The sign has the text "Who do you think you are?" written on it in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The background is dark and out of focus.

Who do you think you are?

Psalm 2

Christian Herter

- 1 Why do the nations conspire
and the peoples plot in vain?
- 2 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord and against His anointed One.
- 3 “Let us break their chains,” they say,
“and throw off their fetters.”

- When we live two lives

- When we live two lives
- When we surrender some things to God but keep others to ourselves

- When we live two lives
- When we surrender some things to God but keep others to ourselves
- When there's sin in our lives but we ignore it

4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs,
the Lord scoffs at them.

5 Then He rebukes them in His anger
and terrifies them in His wrath saying,

6 “I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill.”

7 I will proclaim the decree of the Lord:

He said to me, “You are my Son,
today I have become your Father.

8 Ask of me and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession.

9 You will rule them with an iron scepter;
you will dash them to pieces like pottery

10 Therefore, you kings, be wise;
be warned, you rulers of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord with fear and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry
and you be destroyed in your way,
for his wrath can flare up in a moment.
Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

“Serve, in this case, signifies acknowledgment of God, an acknowledgment that requires one’s entire existence.”

10 Therefore, you kings, be wise;
be warned, you rulers of the earth.

Jesus Christ became incarnate for one purpose,
to make a way back to God that man might stand before Him
as He was created to do,
the friend and lover of God Himself.
